sigh RE:4...ew...maybe one of the not so good ones for me. It was a nice little action game, but totally different from all the survival horror games in the series...besides, there was way to much ammo and health xD

the resident evil series is the BEST thing ever to happen to gaming. and im not a big gamer. i have been a fan of resident evil since i was like 7. my favorites are the remake of the original for gamecube, and Resident Evil 3.

zombies scare the living st outa me! no i dont like the series but the seckend movie wasent to bad though freaky. I saw dawn of the dead and was tarrifid for a month! how could they make a zombie movie and not tell me that the zombies win!! I whouldent have watched! anyway I like waching the movie parts of final fantasy games but I only play C&C every once and a wile and nothing else.

I love Nemesis (the 3rd one) Cuz they kinda messed it up with all the new ones, it was the last good one.

No the best ones are Code Veronica X and number 2 because Claire Redfield is AWSOME!

Number 4 sucked but i was happy to see Ada Wong back from the dead lol.

Got to be RE3. The standard seemed to drop with RE4. I think the developers concentrated too much on making it look good and forgot to make a good game. RE: Survivor holds a strange attraction for me too.

ive only really played RE 1, 0 and 4 on the GC and loved them all the only games ive been scared while playing especialy 4. i bought the others on the gamecube as well but couldn't really get into them, basicly 'cos im just shallow. as for the movies, although they didn't really fit with the games exepct useing all the same names, i thought they were good, the second one was my favorit tho, cos i love apocoliptic movies! like dawn of the dead and 28 days later.

Resident Evil 3 was the first game of the series i ever gotten so i was pretty much lost on the whole story of the T-virus lol.

But obviously i got the other games and its one of the best series ever, fave being number 3, Jill valentine is too awesome.

I thought the movies were enjoyable, not like the games i'll admit, but they were different and i think thats what i liked about them. plus i have an obsession with Milla Jovovich which helps. She's hot!.

i loved all of them , except number 4. The gameplay on 4 was great and so were the graphics, but i didnt like the factt hat they totally took out zombies all together, no more zombies? wtf, that isnt resident evil anymore T_T .

I agree, the movies rocked ^_^ but i think they chose a bad actor for wesker.... T_T i love wesker too....

Well i have a question who is Wesker? Is that Alice. And then in the third movie what the hell happened to Valintine, and Angie. Ya know where did they go it didn't say.

Re:Resident Evil

Posted by Isao - 2007/11/26 10:10

lol well im pretty sure they died.... i know i know silent tear Xp

Wesker is the chairman from the end of the movie, the one with blonde hair that kept ordering Dr. Isaac not to go to the surface without authorization to get subjects to test on. he's the one who's voice Dr. Isaac changed to let him get the order to go out, which ended up with Dr. Isaac getting an order to be killed.

I agree with the wesker character, i thought maybe they could find someone better.

He's awesome in the game! Waiting for Resident Evil 5 now, and hopefully a 4th movie if there is going to be one.

the game looks sweet, but i think its a direct sequel to 4, if thats the case i wont buy it even if i do get a ps3 eventually...

and as for another movie, i think they should have based the rest on the books, that would give them more to work with for the moves, at this point they are just kinda mimicking the games the best that they can. The next movei would have to have leon kennedy in it though , i wouldnt mind that ^_^

Resident evil 4 wasn't that bad. The fact that the 'zombies' could run and use thier brains made for an interesting enemy. There was plenty of action and surprises in it too, but the dude with the chainsaw scares the $#!7 out of me...
