

My Wife Loves Another Woman

Sunday, 19 June 2005

I am the father of 3 boys-2 teenagers,and one who is six. My wife approx 6-9 months hinted that she is inlove with another woman. I am not sure what I can do if anything. I want to remain in the house with her and the kids-but she seems to want to perhaps go seperate ways and try to take the children.She might stay if I accept her new life. I certainly do not want her to leave. That is all for now Thanks!
